

Frequently Asked Questions

What are my Homeowner's Association Dues?

Homeowner's dues are $4,400 (effective July 1, 2019) a year for a single-family home. In addition to garbage, our HOA fees cover all of the common area maintenance and community beautification, use of the Clubhouse which includes the award-winning Mesquite Bar & Grill and the Cimarron Dining Room, pool and spa, fitness center and the 18-hole natural grass putting course. In addition to the regular HOA fees, individual townhome associations have their own HOA fees ranging from $1,400 - $2,100 per year. This fee generally covers the outside maintenance of the townhome including landscaping, irrigation, and painting.

Is the community gated?

Yes, we are a gated community. The gates are unmanned and each property owner has a device in their vehicle for opening the gates. For security, the gates are closed from 8:30 PM to 6 AM.

What are my property taxes?

Property taxes are based on property valuations as determined by the county assessor. Tonto Verde's properties range in price from $350,000 to $2 million and include single-family homes and townhomes so property taxes vary. The median property tax within Tonto Verde is $3,000.
